

Imola - Race 2

20.03.2011

The 2011 GP2 Asia Series hit its final race today at Imola. The closing race of the weekend proved less lucky than expected for the Trident Racing duo. Both drivers were faultlessly forced to retire despite the huge potential showed, failing to achieve some well-deserved positive results. Stefano Coletti was off to a great start, and even challenged the leading car of Dani Clos in the very early stages. While he was making his way into the first corner though, he was hit hard by the following...

- 19.03.2011 Imola - Race 1
- 18.03.2011 Imola - Qualifying
- 13.02.2011 Abu Dhabi - Race 2 - Trident won
- 11.02.2011 Abu Dhabi - Race 1
- 10.02.2011 Waiting for the first GP2 Asia Series race
- 08.02.2011 Waiting for the first GP2 Asia race wee-end
